A wedding of interest to friends and relatives in the Lomond district was solemnized in Lethbridge on Tuesday, July 12 at 10 a.m. where St. Patrick's rectory was the scene of the quiet but pretty wedding when wedding vows were exchanged between Laura Esther, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koch of Lomond and Mr. Ernest J. Kiemele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kiemele of Milo. The ceremony was performed by Father Morrow of Brooks.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white satin styled with a fitted bodice, lily point sleeves, a shoulder yolk of lace over net and trimming the hem line was lace and orange blossoms. She wore a finger tip veil held in place by a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls which has been a possession of her mother for over 26 years.

Attending the bride was Miss Grace Kiemele of Milo, sister of the groom. She wore a gown of pink taffeta. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a bandeau of forget-me-nots. She wore a corsage of red roses. The second bridesmaid was Miss Velma Durand of Spondin, Alta., cousin of the bride. She wore a gown of blue nylon taffeta. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a bandeau of blue ice box flowers. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Attending the groom was Mr. Alvin Koch, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ted Kiemele of Milo, brother of the groom.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Jade Room of the Lotus Inn. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and decorated with spring flowers. Father Morrow of Brooks and Mr. W. Shields of Milo proposed the toasts to the bride. The groom very suitably responded.

For the wedding the bride's mother was becomingly dressed in a suit of rust gabardine with black accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Kiemele mother of the groom, chose a rust colored dress. Her corsage was of pink roses.

For travelling the bride wore a suit of pale blue gabardine with white accessories.

(Weekly Oil Bulletin)

Indications for a third oil discovery in the Vulcan area of southern Alberta were reported Aug. 8, when the team of Husky Oil & Refining Limited, and Phillips Petroleum Company of Oklahoma found light gravity oil in the Mississippian formation at their joint wildcat half a dozen miles south-east of Vulcan town. During July that well had discovered 35 degree API crude oil in the Basal Cretaceous.

The indicated dual discovery well is Husky-Phillips-Vulcan No. 1, on 1st 8-13-16-24th, 60 miles south of Calgary, 23 miles north of Barons oil field and 13 miles east-southeast of the Shell C & E No. 1 Madison oil discovery.

The Husky-Phillips well contacted the Mississippian at 5,491 feet, or 2,077 feet subsea (K.B. elevation 3,414 feet), and ran first drillstem test in that formation from 5,491 to 5,503. Natural gas flowed to the surface in 14 minutes, at estimated rate 25,000 cubic feet daily. Recovery during the two hour test consisted of 220 feet of 30 degree API crude oil, 50 feet of oil-cut mud and 30 feet of slightly brackish water. Second test, from 5,503 to 5,515 feet, yielded 90 feet of oil-cut mud in 45 minutes. Drilling is currently continuing below 5,589 feet.

Previous drillstem test, in a sand formation believed to be the Basal Cretaceous, from 5,336 to 5,351 feet, flowed gas at rate 25,000 cubic feet daily and gave 20 minute recovery consisting of 400 feet of oil and 50 feet of oil-cut mud. It is unofficially reported that this first discovery zone showed a minimum of 12 feet of oil pay.

Husky-Phillips-Vulcan No. 1 well lies on a farm tract from Socony-Vacuum Exploration Company. Interest in it and the farm tract of C.P.R. rights is shared 50 per cent by Socony and 25 per cent each by Husky and Phillips. In addition to the farm tract acreage from Socony, Husky and Phillips share in a sizeable acreage spread near the discovery well.

Berrywater Meeting Hears F.U.A. Conference Report

(Contributed)

On Friday evening, Aug. 8, a community gathering of approximately 40 adults and children of the Berrywater district sat down to a picnic supper at the Berrywater Community Centre.

After the supper the company adjourned to the school building. Mrs. Olive Douglas occupied the chair. Wilson Oldfield was called forward and he in turn called Mr. and Mrs. David Sims forward. Honoring their 25th wedding anniversary and their new home, a table lamp was presented on behalf of the community. Taken by surprise, Mrs. Sims said "No wonder line 13 was so busy that day" and Mr. Sims made a correction on the house "not a new house, but one that had its face lifted." Both expressed their sincere appreciation for the gift and kind thoughts.

Miss Norma Adams, who was a delegate to Farm Young People's Week in Edmonton, gave a splendid report of the week. In spite of rain the first four days she enjoyed every bit of it and thanked those responsible for her going. She reported lectures for the girls on flower arrangement, when and how to freeze foods; fashions and dress, color designs for the homes and tips on dating.

Also she spoke of a special service held Sunday in Convocation Hall, conducted by Rev. E. J. White of the First Presbyterian Church with the choir and organist Arthur Newcombe, assisting, which was "grand" and "out of this world."

Several periods of recreation were held in the varsity gym, square dancing, also a theatre party and aquatic night. An address on Government in the Modern State by G. S. R. Hawkins of the University of London (two hours in length) was characterized as "simply wonderful."

Norma's enthusiasm and enjoyment of the week was very contagious and a hearty vote of thanks was given for her report. Norma was elected at Edmonton as director for District 12.

Archie Hogg, President of District 12, brought greetings to the local. He gave a short account of his work since being elected in December, having been in touch with all the locals in the district or members thereof. Mr. Hogg, who was a delegate from District 12 to the Inter-provincial Farm Union Conference at Saskatoon, reported on the proceedings. About 700 members registered, besides many visitors, the Albertans numbering only 30.

Premier Douglas, in his address of welcome quoted statistics and gave figures to show that although farmers had been promised adequate floor prices after the war, because of the ceilings placed on their products during the war, prices were only 40 per cent more while what they had to buy had risen 60 per cent.

Six main speakers were heard on different topics: Mr. Davis on Poultry; Mr. Milliken, Solicitor of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool; Mr. Dolley, who is chief grain grader at Winnipeg and Mr. Wesley Coats, who was Farm Union representative at the recent International Wheat Conference at London.

Hon. James Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture spoke at length on the Foot and Mouth disease outbreak and how it had been handled.

The highlight of the addresses was that given by Elmer Kruse of Washington, D.C., U.S. delegate at the recent I.W.A. conference in London. He made it quite clear that United States is not inclined to enter into the International Wheat Agreement on anything like present floor ceiling prices. His address showed a sympathetic understanding of the farmer's viewpoint.

The opinion of the delegates concurred in the U.S. view on the I.W.A. but it was clear no one wanted to go back to the open market. Failing a suitable agreement in the I.W.A. it was felt the Wheat Board should be given the job of selling the crop to the best advantage. On the domestic price of wheat the present government policy of forcing the western farmers to subsidize Canadian consumers, was condemned and a parity price demanded.

Marketing boards were favored for the selling of livestock. A re-

About Polio

What every Parent should know
1. Any minor illness or fever during the poliomyelitis season should be treated by bed rest and isolation pending diagnosis. It might be poliomyelitis and if it is it can be made more severe by forcing the person to carry on usual activity.

2. Excessive physical strain and unnecessary travel and visiting should be avoided during the polio season.

3. Water that might be contaminated by sewage should be avoided for washing or swimming or drinking.

4. Flies should be suppressed and, in particular, food should be protected from fly contamination. All fresh fruit should be washed before eating.

5. All except urgent nose and throat operations and dental extractions should be postponed during the polio season (approx. from July to November).

6. With regard to summer camps, it has been recommended that camps be opened if no outbreak exists in the area, but children should not be admitted from an epidemic area. If a new case develops in the camp, new children should not be admitted, but children in the camp should be retained for fourteen days after the last contact with the case.

7. Attendance of children at fairs, theatres, and swimming pools should be discouraged.

8. In all events, hysteria and panic should be avoided. A normal healthy life should be led and special attention to cleanliness of person and environment maintained.

9. During a severe epidemic your child runs this risk:

1 chance in 1,500 of developing polio.
1 chance in 7,500 of being paralyzed.
1 chance in 30,000 of dying with polio.

Special Services At Evangelical Church

Members and friends from far and near gathered at the Philadelphia Evangelical United Brethren Church to attend the brethren meetings over the weekend. The services commenced Friday evening, Aug. 8, and were climaxed with the Sunday evening meeting. Members of the congregation took turns in expounding the Word and in exhortation and during intervals between speakers there was hearty singing of favorite gospel hymns.

On Saturday morning a Bible study period was held on II: Thes. 2 and at the close of the Sunday morning service many gathered at the altar of the church for communion. The central thought and theme through out the services was: "Prepare now to meet thy God, for the coming of the Lord is nigh." Delicious meals were served by the ladies at noon and evening in the basement of the church.

The class leader, Jacob Fritzer, expressed thanks to all for coming. Visitors who attended came from California, Calgary, Strathmore, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Parkland and Milo.

solution asked the following floor prices. Top steers 28 cents, Grade A hogs, 32 cents, Grade A eggs, 45 cents, Butterfat, 63 cents.

The Conference was quite emphatic that if the Federal government decides in future to sell Canadian farm products at special low rates to other countries, Canadian farmers should not be expected to bear the loss involved.

In speaking of the women's part Mr. Hogg said in his opinion the F.W.U.A. president, Mrs. Taylor, said a great deal more in the short time she was on the agenda than other women speakers, who talked at great length.

Mrs. Hogg's address was interspersed with stories and interesting anecdotes of the Conference, and a hearty vote of thanks was given him for giving of his time to bring this fine report.

Recent figures indicate Canada's commercial fishing fleet numbers more than 40,000 vessels.

FARMERS... GET A SUND RAKING PICKUP

CHECK THESE FEATURES

1. Can be attached to any make of combine-harvester, either tractor drawn or self-propelled.
2. Its exclusive, patented tooth action insures a clean complete pick-up whether the crops are light or heavy.
3. This patented feature of the SUND RAKING PICK-UP also permits a raking action accomplished by the forward motion of the teeth, three rows of which are constantly in contact with the ground.
4. SUND RAKING PICK-UP will salvage the major portion of a crop damaged by hail or sawfly except that which has been shelled out. It can pick up such a broken down crop without the necessity of cutting it.
5. Teeth leave ground before starting upturn thus minimizing the chance of picking up stones.
6. Full 7 feet of effective pick-up width enables it to pick up scattered windrows.
7. Flexible Beater is another exclusive SUND feature which prevents to a large extent long grain or vinelike weeds from winding around the mechanism.
8. The floating suspension also permits correct adjustment which secures uniform pressure of teeth to the ground throughout a large range of up and down movements.
9. The necessity for frequently raising or lowering the platform is eliminated and this permits one man to operate combine and tractor.
10. This suspension also raises the front end of the pickup automatically when turning a corner.

TEXACO MOTOR OIL

INSULATED AGAINST HEAT

... AND REGULAR PRICED!

On these hot summer days hard-working farm machinery is up against a real heat problem—with crankcase temperatures, for example, up around 240°. That's why many farmers turn to Texaco Motor Oil—insulated against heat!

Texaco Motor Oil is insulated against heat by an exclusive Texaco process. It stands up under high engine-operating temperatures and resists the formation of varnish-like deposits that steal power and waste gasoline.

Texaco Motor Oil in tractor, truck and car engines gives you more power, greater fuel economy and fewer repairs. And remember—you get lower operating costs along with this better engine performance, because Texaco Motor Oil is regular-priced!

"YOU'LL SWEAR BY AND NEVER SWEAR AT ESSO AND ACTO GASOLINES"

You can't do anything about the weather. It often gets too hot or too cold. But when it comes to gasolines you can depend on either Esso or Acto—they work well in any weather. During those busy seasons you'll have no trouble starting your tractor and it will work through the day without a sputter or a miss.

Well another county fair is a thing of the past. In some ways this fair seems to have outdone last year's and in other ways it fell short of the standard set by the first county fair to be held in this part of the country. There was an increase in some exhibits to the extent of really making the effort worth while but in other sections very few entries were submitted. The flower showing was very good with quite a variety of blooms colorfully displayed. Also the participation in the art class was very good and much originality could be seen. It seemed to be especially the cooking and handicraft that fell short. However, next year we will have an even better idea of what to display and how to display it and it is hoped that the fair will grow with our knowledge.

Harvest seems to be creeping up on us very quickly indeed as we see the crops turning color more every day. Some swathing has already been done on the barley and especially in the areas that got much hail are the wheat fields turning quickly. But have you noticed the ducks flying in ever growing flocks? Ducks Unlimited should be happy this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Shafer and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burk are visiting relatives and friends in the Milo district. Mr. Burk is a real oldtimer in this community and was among the first to homestead here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Deltz proudly announce the birth of a daughter Wendy Anne, born in the Vulcan hospital, Aug. 4.

At last there is a road being constructed across the reserve from the end of the county line to the top of the Cluny hill. In spite of the fact that it was the only road leading to the other side of the river for a good many miles in either direction it has been in deplorable shape for a number of years now. It was bad enough in the summer but in the winter it was impassable most of the time. However a good grade is being built now so conditions should be better.

Miss Jo Ann Heather has gone to Cluny to spend a few weeks of her holidays with her sisters Mrs. Donald Gordon and Mrs. May Corbiel.

A picnic was held at the lake on Sunday at which quite a number of people from outlying districts were present. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Shafer of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burk of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Aman and Mr. Prouse, Mr. and Mrs. Damien Corbiel, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gordon of Cluny, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen Sr. of Enchant were among those present.

Mrs. Orville Spears, who has spent the last few months in Milo living in her house trailer, has gone to Magrath where her husband is now working.

Mrs. Kiska who has had her sister staying with her for some time now has gone to Saskatchewan with her to visit her family.

Floyd Armstrong has been in Calgary lately taking treatments for his eye which has been bothering him. While returning from such a trip last week, he and his wife had a very nearly tragic accident. While travelling between High River and the Corner Store the car went completely out of control due to incomplete work that had been done in Calgary, and went in the ditch. Luckily they were not going too fast nor were the ditches too deep, but it could have been very bad indeed.

Well, Dam Town has moved. Yes, that thriving little establishment that has been west of Milo all summer has simply pulled up stakes and left. They have gone to Dgumheller for a couple of months and then plan on being back in Milo again. Their office and workshop are all that at present remain. Some of the local boys who have been working on the dam have also moved to the new location.

The excitement of election day is over for awhile again and whether your favorite won or lost is past history. If you voted you now have the right to grumble if you think it is necessary, but if you didn't bother to vote, how can you think that you have any right to complain over what someone else has done through your slackness.
